

I can't help myself

(lyrics RH Weber/music RH Weber, S Delbaere, G vd Kolm, F de Jong)

I can't help myself when you shake 'a' that thing
I can't help myself when you shake 'a' that thing
The finest woman I've ever seen

I can't help myself when you make your move
I can't help myself when you make your move
You got me acting like a fool, wondering what to do

Eyes so big and shining, ready to hypnotize
Every time that you walk by I shiver deep inside
You knock down my defenses and I don't mind

When you talk to me words just seem to fade
I can't get it right and I don't know what to say
A woman like you is so unreal; I've got to find a way

I can't help myself when you shake 'a' that thing
I can't help myself when you shake 'a' that thing
The finest woman I've ever seen

When you shake 'a' that thing
When you shake 'a' that thing
When you shake 'a' that thing
I can't help myself when you shake 'a' that thing
