

Beating like a drum

(lyrics: RH Weber music: RH Weber)

Early one morning
You were gone
You left us standing
In that empty room
In all my life
I never felt so sad
When your heart stopped beating
Beating like a drum

We'll be all right
I just wish I could have told you
In all this sadness
A new life has begun
And now I know I will always remember
When I hear that heart
Beating like a drum

Now that it's time
I'll be starting over
But it will never, never be the same again
You don't know how much I'll miss you
When I hear that heart
Beating like a drum
You don't know
How much I'll miss you
When I hear that heart
Beating like a drum
