

Better leave while you can

(lyrics: RH Weber/music: E Java/performed by King of the World)

You've been lying
Lying in my face
Now you are crying
You wanna keep your place

You had your reasons for being with that man
But I ain't taking the blame
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can

You've been begging
And talking to my friends
You want me to forgive you
There ain't no chance

You should have thought about it before you made your move
Now sleep in the bed that you made
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can

I've been burning
Burning inside
Don't let me find you
I don't wanna fight

You are the reason for things going bad
I don't wanna see you again
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can
You are the reason for things going bad
I never wanna see you again
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can
You better leave while you can
