

She's a burglar

(lyrics/music J Ragovoy performed by King of the World)

She's a burglar
She broke in to my mind
She's a burglar
She took everything she could find

She looked into my eyes
And came out from front socket
And just like that, my heart was gone
She put it in her pocket

She's a burglar
She broke in to my mind
She's a burglar
She took everything she could find

I stood there helpless
Out of control
She smiled at me, with honey lips
And then just stole my soul

She's a burglar
She broke in to my mind
She's a burglar
She took evrything she could find

I held her in my arm,
Let her call my name
And while she sweettalked me
She burglarized my brain
