

The Waiting game

(lyric/music Ruud Weber)

Love is a waiting game
I can't play anymore
I spent all my time waiting
For something that I've never known
So how can you tell me, it will be all right?
Love has never found me. I'm wasting my time
Love is a waiting game
And I can't play anymore

They say it's a simple thing
It will find you in time
But I can't even find myself
It's driving me out of my mind
So where can I run to?
What can I do?
To leave behind something that I never knew
Love is a waiting game
And I can't play anymore

I don't need no sympathy
I won't be back again
Cause I don't need this kind of game
To find out where I stand
I tried and I tried but faith is gone
I don't care where I'm going
I'm gonna keep moving on
Love is a waiting game
And I can't play anymore
I've been waiting so long
O more waiting no more
