

Woman across the river

(lyrics/music: B Crutcher/A Jones performed by King of the World)

Across the river a good woman cried
All because a foolish man had lied
She gave him everything trying to keep him satisfied
But the man told so many lies, now another man is over there

Woman across the river
Woman across the river, she was mine

Word got around that he had jilted her
And men came running from near and far
How could I've been so foolish, I guess I'll never know
But the man who is with her now, he's a lucky so and so

Woman across the river
Woman across the river, she was mine

I met her just the other day, about a week ago
She said, "I don't want to talk to you
'Cause I don't love you any more"

Woman across the river
Woman across the river, she was mine
